

If you are able to come, we would appreciate your help in gathering toppings. Rachel and I will have plates, utensils, toasted buns, and many, many, grilled mini-burgers. Would you pick a couple of toppings that you'd enjoy bringing as well as something to share (drinks, chips, or dessert)?

(We practiced grilling yesterday. The mini-burgers will be 1" thick and 2¾" in diameter. This is going to be legendary.)

Here are the toppings we'd like to serve in order to make over 1 trillion different burgers possible:
